

NEW YORK STATE UNIFIED COURT SYSTEM

Community Dispute Resolution Centers Program

STATISTICAL SUPPLEMENT

2008-2009

INTRODUCTION

The Community Dispute Resolution Centers Program (CDRCP) is a program of the New York State Unified Court System Office of Alternative Dispute Resolution and Court Improvement Programs (ADRCP). The goal of the CDRCP is to provide access for all New Yorkers to affordable or free alternative dispute resolution services such as mediation and arbitration. Established in 1981, the CDRCP funds independent not-for-profit agencies – Community Dispute Resolution Centers (CDRCs) – in every county of New York State.

Many common types of disputes, such as neighbor disagreements, custody and visitation arrangements and landlord-tenant issues, are well suited to mediation. While many people who have filed in court for these issues are referred to mediation, any New Yorker, regardless of whether he or she has a case pending in court, may use the services of the CDRC in his or her local area.

Once a CDRC becomes aware of a dispute, either by walk-in or referral, CDRC staff members conduct interviews with the parties to explain the mediation process and determine whether the dispute is appropriate for mediation. Mediation is a voluntary process, so cases only proceed with the informed consent of all parties. The vast majority of cases handled by CDRCs are mediated by professionally-trained volunteers. These community members receive their training from mediation trainers certified by ADRCP. In addition to dispute resolution services, many CDRCP work in their communities to provide educational and group facilitation services.

STATISTICAL SUPPLEMENT OVERVIEW

The CDRCP Statistical Supplement provides detailed statistical reports on the workload and funding of the CDRCs for the 2008-09 fiscal year. It is designed to supplement the CDRCP Annual Report, providing more specific information on the types of cases handled, case outcomes, referral sources and party relationships. Many of the reports contained in the Statistical Supplement correspond to graphs from the CDRCP Annual Report. In those instances, the graphs are paired with the appropriate reports for the reader's reference.

Some reports contain aggregate case data, whereas others organize the data by county and/or judicial district. For more information on the local CDRC for a particular county, please visit www.nycourts.gov/ip/adr/DirectoryofProviders.pdf to view the CDRCP Directory of Providers. To learn more about how the data contained in the Statistical Supplement is collected and analyzed, see pages 6-8 of the 2008-09 CDRCP Annual Report.
